

ENERGY EVALUATION ASIA PACIFIC

is a non-profit organization established in 2018

Our Mission

To take a leadership role in expanding the practice of, and capacity for, objective evaluation in the energy efficiency, renewable energy and energy related program and policy arena.

Why evaluation is important in Asia Pacific

Economies are developing and implementing new energy policies and programs. Evaluation can:

- Be part of the process
- Increase expertise in governments and private sector for data gathering and analysis
- Access private sector energy investments towards policy goals
- Increase knowledge on the effects of energy policies and programs
- Improve energy policy and program design and implementation

Why evaluate at all?

TO REDUCE UNCERTAINTY

Provide the information to make good decisions regarding policies and investments in programs

TO ACCESS IMPACTS

Estimate the change in energy usage and other targets due to programs & policies

TO IMPROVE PROGRAM AND POLICY DESIGN

Prioritize program & portfolio budgets, and inform resource planners and policymakers

The importance of Energy Evaluation Asia Pacific (EEAP)

‘Capacity building in energy evaluation’

EEAP takes a leadership role in developing the resources and professional expertise to directly answer complex questions including:

Which actions pay off?

How can programs and policies be improved?

What actions can be sustainable, scalable, and security enhancing.

We bring together a community of practice specializing in energy evaluation across the Asia Pacific Region through:

EEAP online resources

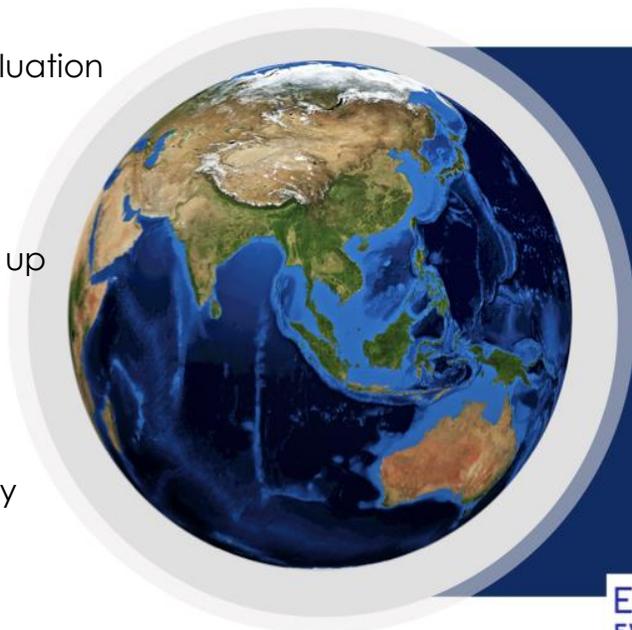

Webinars on energy evaluation

Events

Specialised workshops
