International or Student Scholarship Fund

The Energy Evaluation Europe Conference aims to support the attendance of students. Scholarships will be provided to suitable applicants to provide financial assistance to defray travel and registration costs. Organisations may support our efforts by contributing to the scholarship fund. Amounts of €500 and above will be accepted and the donor will be acknowledged as a supporter on the conference program and website.

Individual Packages

On request, we will be happy to design an individual sponsorship package with you from the services listed above. In addition, we can also develop further individual services with you. For example, sponsoring an evening networking event would also be possible. Please feel free to contact us.
